"The only gift is a portion of thyself"

George Bernard Shaw

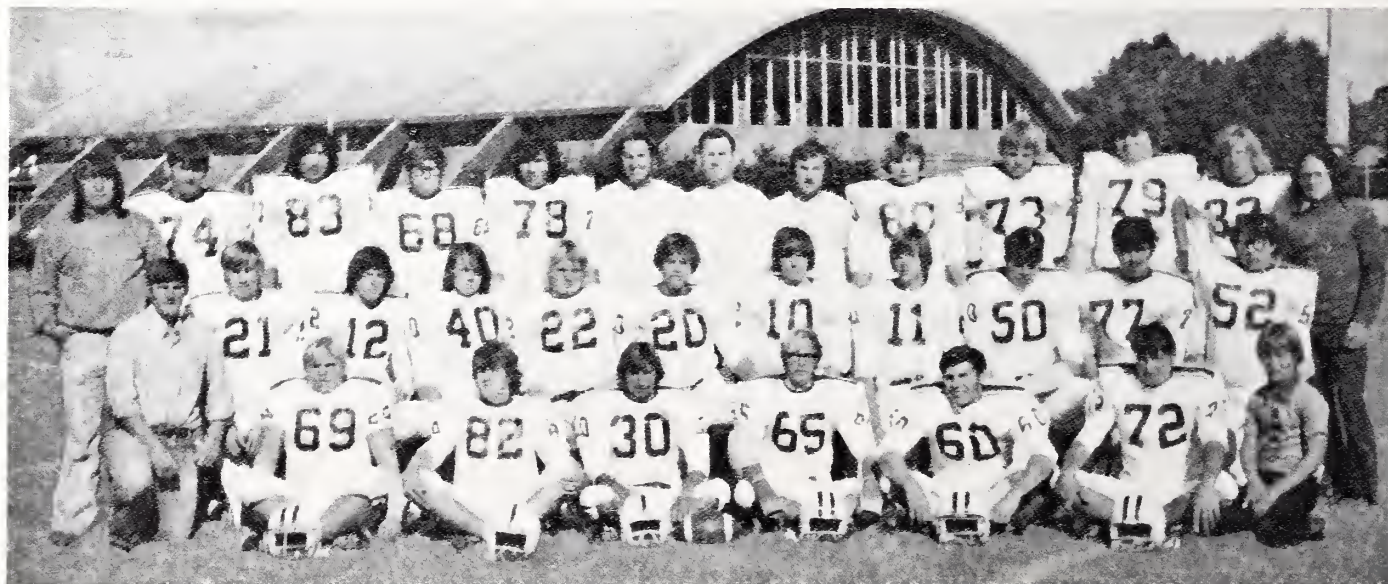

We, the staff and students of C.H.S., do hereby dedicate this book to BRUCE MORGAN, faculty and friend. His devotion and concern for the student body whether it was a pep talk in the locker room, explaining a dissected frog, or a field trip to Wilderness State Park will be remembered by all who ever came in contact with him. He gave his all. Most of all we would like to thank Mr. Morgan for the gift of himself.

It was cold and muddy and sometimes you thought it would snow. But this year the Rayder football team held up through it all. Practice began in the hot August sun and ended in the cold and wet of November. Speed, strength, and a few tricky plays, helped the team turn in one of their more successful seasons. Although we're losing some great seniors, next year there will be more great seniors to cheer on. So, as always, we look forward to next year with high hopes—maybe this time we'll find all that we hope for.

JV Jocks

The Charlevoix J.V. Football players, on their way to becoming Varsity lettermen, put in hours and hours of hard practice for their record of three wins and four losses. Although the record isn't impressive, the guys learned how to win, lose, and play as a team, all of which can be chalked up to experience and a solid varsity team next year. Two men had a lot to do with the hard work, sore muscles, and above all, the team spirit of the J.V.'s. They were coaches Norm Probert and Hal Evans who were just like "one of the guys". With that kind of training the team will go far next year for C.H.S. Good luck in '74!

"Fore-Ward"

(Alias—Golf and Cross Country)

"May your fairways be wide,
And your sandtraps be few
May your drives be long,
And your putts run true."

This seemed to hold true MOST of the time for this year's golf team, as they turned in quite a successful season. Sparked by some eager returnees, the prospects look good or even better for next year.

"Boy am I pooped!" This was one of the more frequently uttered phrases by members of the ping-pong team? No, it was this year's cross-country team that did all the panting. But it paid off. They found an improved season as a reward, and with most of the team returning next year, they should do a lot less panting in '75.

The Lucky

Ladies of C.H.S.

An improved team was what many hoped to see this fall, and no one was disappointed. From the first jump ball to the last free throw this year's girls basketball team bounced over all their opponents, yes, even St. Ignace! Ending up with an undefeated 19-0 season the girls picked up the conference trophy and surprised many. Maybe even Ms. Felter. It looks promising again next year with a strong J.V. team moving up to help fill the places vacated by our four seniors. Guess all those rough practices paid off huh?

J.V.'s Jinx Opponents

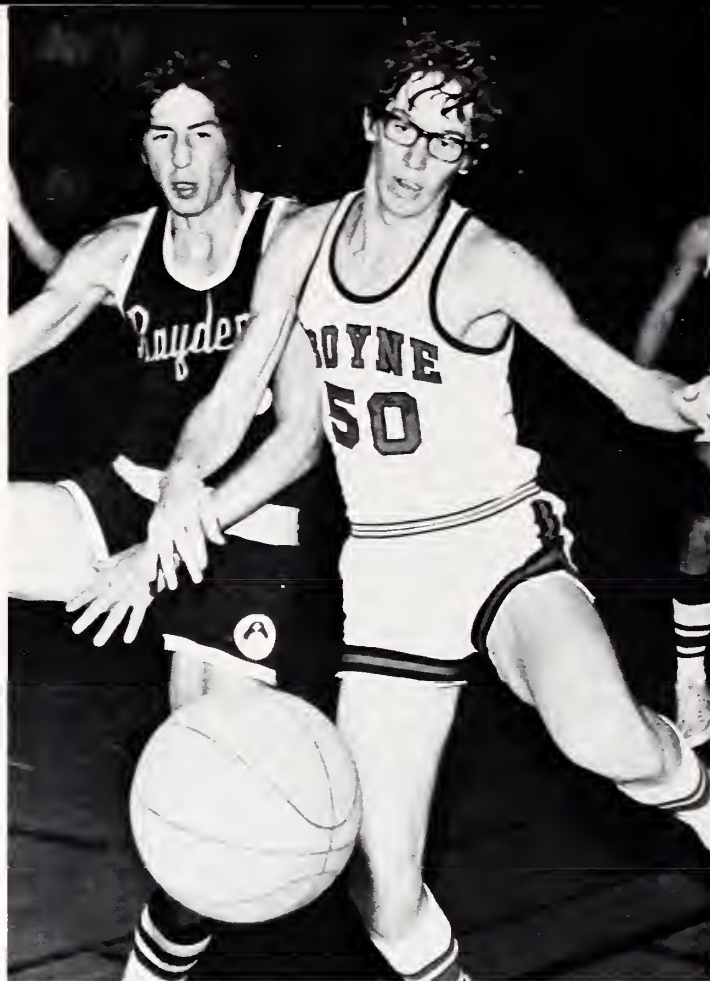

This year girls' basketball had a first. Instead of just one varsity team, there was both a varsity and a J.V. team. The J.V.'s turned in an equally impressive season as the varsity did. With only one loss, they proved that Charlevoix would be just as good, if not better, in the years to come. Having a J.V. team was helpful in that it gave the inexperienced girls a chance to play more often than if they would have been on the varsity. It was a change for Mrs. Felter too—now she has two groups of nuts to keep in line.

Our bouncing baby boys

A bit of disappointment was what the basketball team faced this year. We started with high hopes but found the going not quite as easy. We really had a good team, it's just that there were a few that were better. Their final record was nothing to be ashamed of. Especially when you consider how close some of the games were. We just about topped St. Ignace and gave Boyne City a real scare, but those three points were enough to give the loss to us. However, the team also showed us some impressive victories, with some impressive playing by all. So the season wasn't one to be scratched from the records, but merely a step in becoming a championship team.

. . . Teams Of the Future.

Although the Freshman and J.V. basketball teams didn't turn in impressive records this season they did demonstrate qualities that will become important in future C.H.S. Varsity Teams; drive, enthusiasm, courage, and the ability to smile in defeat. Due to excellent coaching the guys learned that it's not how you play the game but winning that counts . . . or something along that line. Anyway we're all sure the best C.H.S. team is on the way up.

Means Courage

Charlevoix's Wrestling Team had their best year yet winding up the season with an 8 win, 5 loss record in dual meet action. At the first annual Charlevoix Invitational the guys appropriately captured first place and went on to grab fifth place at both the Sault and Benzie Invitational meets. In play-off action Terry Drew, Phil Christ, and Pat Whitley qualified out of districts to go on to Regionals where Phil and Pat qualified for State competition. Phil being the champion in his division. In State finals both Phil and Pat wrestled to seventh place in their classes. So it was a good year. There was hard work, sweat, fish awards, and starvation diets to lose five pounds in one night, but the victories made up for them. A thanks to Coach Norm Probert and assistant Mike Carland who didn't hesitate to be dedicated. It's sure to be a good year in '75.

Streaking the Slopes

And streak they did. The girls anyway. The boys stuck to schussing. The boys finished 5th in the conference and the girls finished an impressive 2nd. But then we all know they were really 1st. However, losing by a half second in the conference meet was just enough to send the trophy to Gaylord. High hopes for next year, even though we're losing some important seniors. Oh well, onward and downward.

“Heads Up”

This year, the girls' volleyball team recaptured the conference crown by having 20 wins to only 1 loss in conference play. The Rayder girls turned in one of their best seasons ever to see that trophy safely to the shelves of C.H.S. It's something to be proud of since this was the girls' second conference trophy of the year. They were a high-spirited team and had fun in playing. Sometimes things got a little scary, but they were soon overcome when that last point was scored.

Burke, E. Russell, D. Clark, Ranger.

This is just what the boy's track team knew as they turned in a very impressive season. They added several trophies to the shelves of C.H.S. some of which were 1st in the Soo Invitational, Rudyard Relays, Petoskey Relays, Conference and Regionals. The boys helped enforce the growing reputation of Charlevoix in track. It's something like the "St. Ignace" of track which in the eyes of many is unbeatable. Every stride of the way we showed our speed and strength to be superior to that of practically everyone else. Things look bright again next year with some advancing freshmen to help fill those spots vacated by our seniors. Yes, this year we knew the thrill of victory, but even amidst the victories there were moments of defeat. But then think how much sweeter is the victory after the bitter taste of defeat.

Girls on the Run:

A Step Toward Equal Sports

1st Row: D. Boss, D. Bellows, T. Morris, T. Alger, J. Alger, T. Novotny.
2nd Row: B. Egler, L. Smith, K. Currey, D. Jones, A. Potter, G. Ebey.
3rd Row: Mrs. Osterbery, K. Wheeler, G. Powell, T. Hufford, C. Pence, C. Malpeli, B. Meadows.

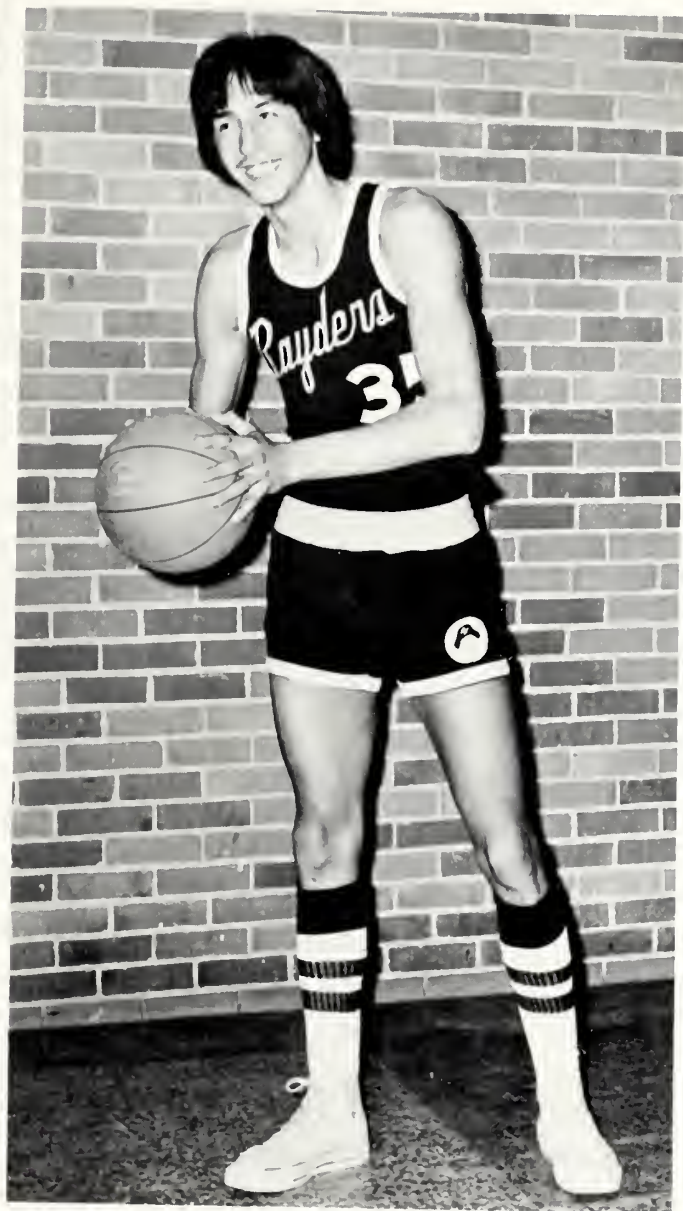

The girls started out with high hopes to gain the conference trophy as well as regionals without too much trouble from Rogers City. But they were more trouble than we thought and snatched both titles by a narrow margin. Even though the girls were overshadowed by the boy's as far as trophies, they had a very good season also. The girls sent nine members to the State Track Meet this year and even had some medals when they got home. Then after the meets are the good times when you can relax and enjoy the ride home. The girl's had their things like rocks and dancing up and down the aisles on the way home. A bit more civilized than the boys—right?

Appreciated Efforts

There were many efforts to be appreciated at this year's Sports Awards Night. It's the time when you are awarded for all those non-academic things you spend so much time on, perhaps forgetting the academic things that you are supposed to be working on. Finding time to participate in sports and still keep up academically is a real challenge, and thus, it is only proper to be awarded for doing so. This year the Stewart "Irish" Coleman Award was given to both a boy and a girl. That boy and girl being Randy Faust and Tori Alger. There were many other awards to be given out, though. Some of these awards were very special awards, such as the special Sports Booster Award given to Skip Skippergosh, and the special award given to Randy Faust for triumph over great adversity in becoming an all-around athlete. Other awards were: State Wrestling, in which Phil Christ and Pat Whitely both finished 7th, all conference basketball, football, and cross-country, boys and girls state track and state skiing. Sports Awards Night was something we could all remember. But then, who could forget Mr. Carey's speech?

Marching Band

This year, the Rayder Marching Band took on a new look. Added were a Drum Major, Flag Corp, and a Pillsbury Dough Boy. To add to the new look was a whole new style of marching thanks to "Mr. L." and friends, who held camp in August. It was rough; your feet hurt and no one could talk after yelling GO!! at least 50 times a day. Then there were cal's. Ten jumping jacks are a lot harder than you think. But we all just LOVED to do the crab. Even Mr. Carland tried it. The final highlight to a new and great year was Charlevoix's first appearance at M.S.U.

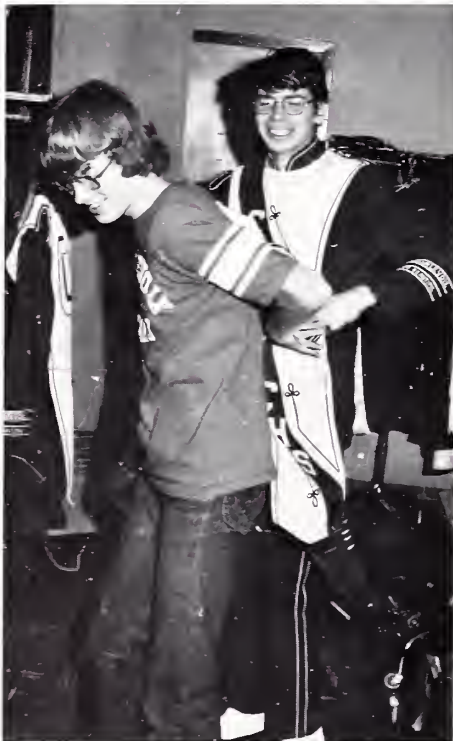

Oh,
Ooh,
Oh
Oh . . .

My aching feet!

Reigning over Charlevoix's Homecoming festivities was lovely Queen Peggy Carey, escorted by Randy Smith. Among her charming court were Debby Powell, escorted by John Osterberg, RaeAnne Slone, escorted by John Murray, Sharon Monteith, escorted by Tim Moerland, and Faith Malpeli, escorted by Pat Whitley.

. . . And for Once—

It Didn't Rain!

The four lovely girls on the court led by Queen Peggy gave a sparkle to the festivities and pride and spirit to all. The band, floats, and crowd drove the Rayders on to a Homecoming Victory as the Sophs streaked away with first place in the float competition with their comet entry. Juniors took second with their Martian and the Freshmen were saved from last place by the ingenuity of the Seniors' robot. The enthusiasm of the crowd was brought to a peak by our ever energetic cheerleaders and Marching Band that stepped onto the field with ultimate confidence in their spectacular show.

Overall, Homecoming means SPIRIT!!!

Jumping Into an Almost

RAH, RAH, RAH: SIS BOOM BAH.

This year all three squads cheered the Rayders on to victory in style—sometimes. The squads had their ups and downs—especially when doing Rayders Smash 'Em. There were new things this year like a clinic at U. of M., skunk socks, and a frosh on the J.V. squad. The practices sometimes got tiresome, the pep meetings were a bunch of decisions, and the games were hot, but they managed to pull through for another year of GO TEAM GO!!!

Pep?!?

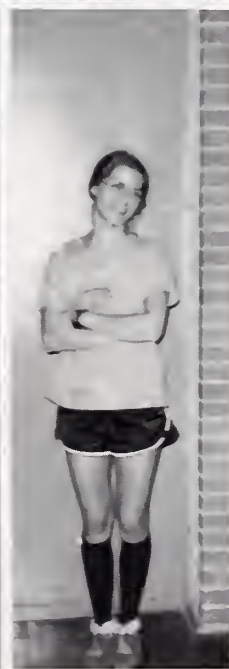

Keeping the crowd awake and alive at this year's home basketball games was the C.H.S. Pep Band, under the direction of Gary Stutzman. Filling the gym with the sounds of the 50's, or the blues, or even jazz, the band drew applause as fans sang or even jitterbugged along. As the last strains of "Sweet Georgia Brown" fade from a deserted gym, we sigh and look forward to the time when we can have REAL uniforms and actual rehearsals.

Spirit Today

To try and regain some of the old pep; the old "go out and get 'em" Mr. Mr. Carey tells us C.H.S. used to have, the Student Council sponsored Spirit Week with such attractions as crazy sock and hat days, and a hall decorating contest. It was another step toward making Spirit Week every week.

And in The 50's.

"One, two, three o'clock, four o'clock rock." This year C.H.S. students had their first 50's day, that is since 1959. The girls slipped on the penny loafers and the boys greased and combed back their D.A.'s to make the 50's day the cat's pajamas. It was the one activity that got everybody involved, even Mr. Smith: he didn't have to get dressed up.

“Hey Paw”

“Yeah Maw?”

A real foot stompin', hog squelin' time described this year's Sadie. Everyone took special pains to look their worst. Some people couldn't even be recognized! It was a time to relax and enjoy the simpler way of life known by Daisy Mae and 'Lil Abner—even if we did exaggerate a little.

Symphony Band

This year the Symphony Band competed in class B and received a I rating in this class at districts for the first time in Mr. Odmark's 28 years here. At the state festival, the band received a II, which isn't bad at all. Sure, there were bad moments. But when the last note of "The Stars and Stripes Forever" had been played, you realized that all in all it had been a good year.

Being the second band isn't always easy, but the Concert Band members proved themselves by receiving an overall "I" rating at the District Festival again this year. This year's band, though, went to the State Festival where they received an overall "II" rating. To help in their efforts to go down state, the band sold greeting cards.

The band officers helped Concert Band immensely in its success. They helped Mr. Odmark by doing a lot of the "little" things. They are: John Cinnamon, St. Director; Lee Begrow, Sec'y; Sandra Hodge, Treas.

Freshman Band: A Beginning

This year, Freshman Band was mainly a technique class. They gave no concerts, however, those students who wanted to were allowed to play with the Concert Band when it performed.

Two students helped Mr. Odmark this year. Sue Greene, Student Director, and Vicki Revoir, Secretary-Treasurer, kept the band "in working order."

Sing, Sing a Song

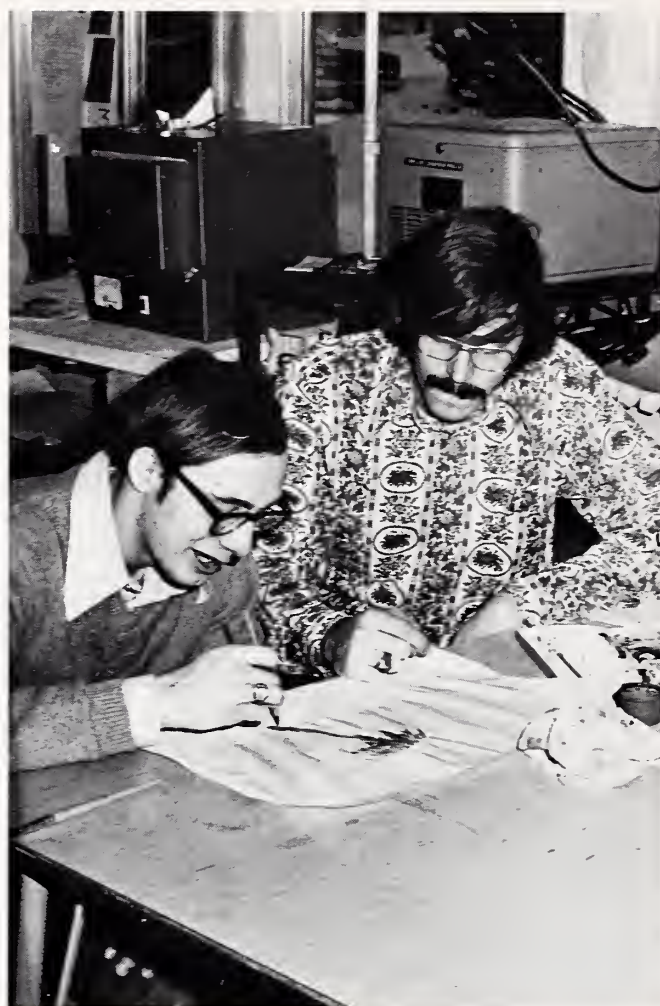

The girls vocal ensemble, although small in number, was strong in spirit. They put it all together and did some of their own composing and arranging, and made "beautiful music together." Sure, there were the bad notes but it's the good notes that you remember. One thing you can find in a group like this: It takes more than one note to make a chord.

Classes . . . What We Learn

Whether it's reading that required a book, building a model airplane, or just doing your typing assignment, there is always something to do at C.H.S. In fact, the day isn't complete without at least one of the activities shown here. Then again the average student may find himself involved in two or three of these scenes each day.

Student Council, or “Why do we have to meet before school?”

We, as a council, underwent many changes this year, including our change of presidency. President Janet B. set up four standing committees which proved to help move business along. Friday morning continental breakfasts were started in the hope of improving faculty-student relations. The 73-74 council certainly accomplished many things.

This year Campus Life had everything that you'd find on campus—nuts, squirrels, . . . Things like Washington D.C. over Christmas vacation, the Sweetheart Pageant, and SKITZO-WAUTUSIDORFRITICLODSETHALAPARTY highlighted this year's activities. The latter was frozen in our memories. Frozen, because Sunday morning there was snow in the air and ice in the milk.

Next Stop: Spain!

We started out the year with high hopes—we thought we could raise enough money to take us to Spain. Well, enthusiasm began to lag and we found we'd never make it. Those who could afford it, however, spent seven fabulous days in Spain and Morocco during spring break.

Our second annual Carnation Day (Día de los Claveles) was held on Valentines Day, and we had a second annual "Day of the Dead" bake sale. A Taco Dinner was next on the agenda, with many Spanish dishes. ¡Muy Bueno!

Presenting: The C.H.S. Debate Team— Michigan's 2nd Place C-D Finishers

John S. Knight Scholarship Qualifier: Anita Potter.

Practicing for State Finals: Susie Boss, official timekeeper, Anita Potter, Sheilah Brady, Affirmative; Kim Blanchard, Gayle Boss, Negative.

They took second; S. Brady, G. Boss, Mrs. Ford, K. Blanchard, A. Potter.

The most outstanding debate team Charlevoix has ever produced argued their way to twelve trophies and plaques, including 1st place in both the Michigan Huron Shores Conference and the Charlevoix Invitational, to finally become the first C.H.S. team, debate or otherwise, to place in the State, capturing 2nd place honors there. With employment of the poor being the national topic, debaters drew on their own experience in summer jobs right here to baffle the down-state teams, although Elk Rapids put up a tough battle with Pat Hopfinger leading the way and Howard and Paul Samuelson close behind. But C.H.S. debaters pulled, or shall we say bulled, through to psyche 'em out at state. But 2nd place this year was only the stepping stone to the ultimate state championship for Charlevoix High.

To Burn

This year's One-Act play, To Burn a Witch, was sparked by four outstanding performances on the part of Susie Boss, Debby Powell, Anita Potter, and Carolyn Swartout. We burnt 'em up at Districts, glowed at Regionals, and smoldered at State. The cast weren't the only ones who worked hard, there's all the extras that the crew took care of. Important things like the stage crew wearing overalls and make-up spraying gray all over Carolyn's hair—at least she looked like an old bag. Several of the girls got strong enough—after lugging around those ten foot flats—to join the wrestling team. Even though it took a lot of work, it all paid off when Anita slapped Susie and Debby fainted.

Susan Boss—excellent acting awards at Districts and State, superior acting award at Regional.

Anita Potter—excellent acting award at Regional.

Debby Powell—superior acting award at Districts.

F.H.A.—Helping Others

It was a busy year for the Future Homemakers of America. There was the trip to Traverse City—just for fun. And making doll clothes for Santa Claus Anonymous. Coloring eggs and taking them to Grandvue at Easter, and making drapes for the retarded children's workshop are two other services this group performed.

Freedom

C.H.S. and its two publications, the Crimson Flash and the Rayder Annual, had their ups and downs in a year filled with deadlines, misplaced pictures, deadlines, broken copy machines, deadlines, misfit photographers, deadlines . . . etc., etc., etc. An important precedent was set this year in a few bouts with the administration on just what freedom of the press is—or isn't. Although there were a few hard feelings, it was certainly a stepping stone toward renewed communications and free voice for all students of C.H.S.—whatever they wish to say.

A Night to Remember

Memories are made of evenings like May 11, 1974—the Junior-Senior Prom. The picture was framed by Stafford's on the Bay, the color was in the music by "Hot Pepper," and was painted by each of us to be remembered and hung on the walls of our minds—Forever.

"We may never pass
this way again"

Life, so they say is but a game
and they let it slip away.

Love, like the autumn sun
should be dying
but it's only just begun.

Peace, like the silent dove should be flying
but it's only just begun.

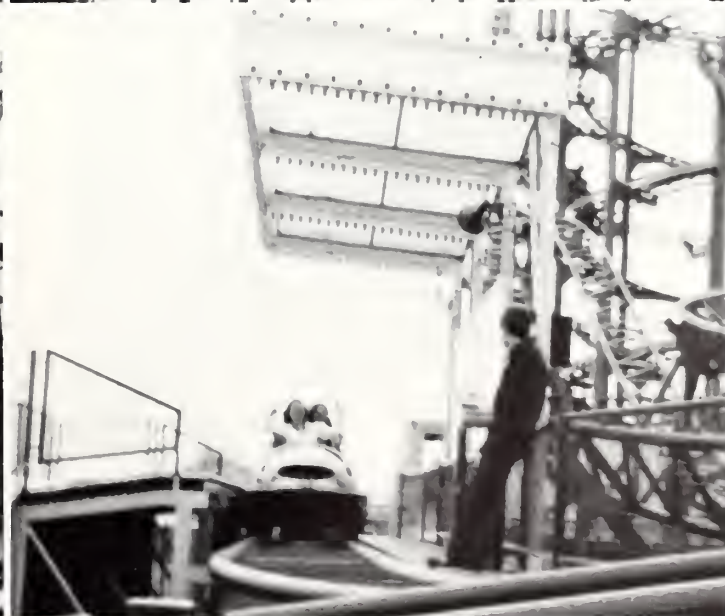

Tripping at

Cedar Point

On a bright Memorial Day approximately 100 smiling seniors packed away their cares to leave Mom and Dad for three days and journey to Cedar Point Amusement Park. Memorable days they were and amusement they had. Besides such passive pastimes as "The Blue Streak," and "The Wildcat," there were parties, and chicken fights in the halls, and cold showers and roller skating races past the front desk. Memorial Day will be remembered in more ways than one in the years to come for the class of '74.

Awards, Awards,

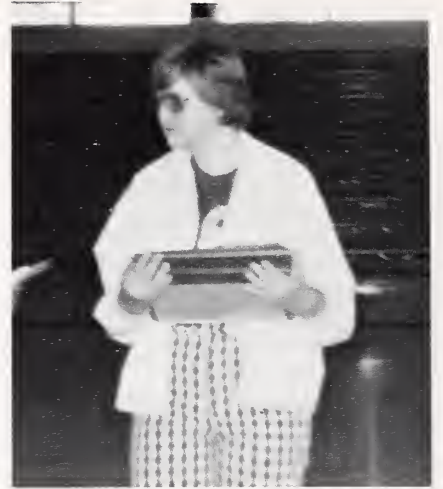

Each school year there is an assembly to award all those so deserving. To receive an award, you do things like break the most test tubes and type 60 words a minute. But there is also a more serious side to the Awards Assembly. It is the time when we salute the top ten seniors, hand out the science awards, and dedicate the 73-74 annual. This year's dedication encouraged a standing ovation by the faculty and entire student body. The Awards Assembly is also the time of year when you find that all the homework was worthwhile. You finally get something for your efforts besides a pat on the back. Although not everyone receives an award, everyone deserves one for just making it through the school year.

of a Senior . . .

Those long awaited days of the class of '74 were finally here. Graduation. A time for Mr. Smith to yell at the seniors one last time at marching practice, with such words of wisdom as "left, right, left . . ." Caps, gowns, and roses, parties, open houses, and presents. A final time to play with the band and to realize it was you they were playing "Pomp and Circumstance" for, and not the class ahead of you. The last time seniors could walk our hallowed halls of C.H.S. as students, before gaining the official title of "alumni". We all realized many things in those last days, most of all—appreciation. Appreciation for friends, faculty, and just the little memories of four years in high school that will stay with us for the rest of our lives. Even guest speaker Mr. Pete Burns, a fond memory from Jr. High days, saw the importance of the memories we all cherish and spoke on them, making his speech a fond remembrance too. Now with one period of life is over and another about to begin, those memories and experiences, success to be imitated, mistakes not to be repeated—each a teacher for us. It is then with boldness the step is taken—outward, upward, onward.

A New Face

A new face was seen at C.H.S. this year. This was our new superintendent, Mr. McKimney. Because he was kept busy running the three schools, we saw very little of him. With the help of their secretaries, Mr. Bogart and Mr. McKimney made 1974 another great year for C.H.S. in the administrative category. Thanks for a job well done.

Faculty Fun!

As we all know, C.H.S. has a spirited, dedicated group of people serving as its faculty. Dedication is shown in a number of ways: piles of homework every night (special dedication can be seen in those who give homework on vacations), deficiency reports, and final exams, to name only a few. We're all sure they'll find even more ways to show their dedication next year as they take one more step to teacher immortality.

The Class of '74

In the beginning we were a bunch of little kids entering the high school for the first time. But we thought we were big and tough 'cause WE were Freshmen.

In the next four years our separate lives molded into ONE. We became a class working together on "GROG" floats and funky pancake breakfasts. Why, we even auctioned ourselves off on Senior Slave Day!

When Graduation finally came—we walked proudly together, looking back on the Cedar Point episode, many weird floats and even a Booby prize. Yes, we were ONE.

The Junior year. Ahh!! We could finally say, "Only one more!" We plowed through with sheer determination led by President Gay and her cabinet of Sue, Ann, and Cindy. It was indeed a year for women's rights! U.S. History became a standard favorite for all Juniors, as on the days of the tests many could be seen reciting the clauses of the Monroe Doctrine or some other such gem of America's past to themselves. The class of '75 finally reached the point where they could look down on the in-coming middle-schoolers (alias freshmen) with an air of sheer superiority, a privilege allowed only to Juniors and Seniors, of course. We were drunk with power!

And then there were the class projects. When they said PSAT/NMSQT we thought it was a code for the Russian underground! And then there was the candle sale—"Ah yes madame, I have all your favorite colors, Tiger Lilly, Orange, Pink Fuscia, and ah . . . Oh yes—Midnight Black." Our poor robot-martian wasn't as "on the beam" as we intended, but second wasn't bad, except when you lose to sophomores—again. All the hassles for the Prom had us tearing our hair out. "How to give a cheap prom and make it look expensive in one easy lesson." The Seniors better appreciate this!

Spirit of '76 . . .

With enthusiasm we looked forward to this year and all the money to be made!! With the help of our advisors, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Robinson, we managed to make it through with victories of our own. Spirit?!?

All those money raising projects! The Northland Press was a winner—a whopping sum of $26!!! Well at least we had the magazine sale. Looking forward to the prom next year with a bulging bank account!?! Our rings were a highlight for everything except our wallets—but who minds? At least our float won. All in all, the good with the bad, it was one of those years you can't forget, even though you might like to.

These girls soon found that being a freshman isn't easy. There are so many new and different things going on—things the Middle school didn't offer—that you quickly become confused. Of course, if you need someone to “un-confuse” you, it's not hard to find an upperclassman willing to louse you up worse than you were before! Added to the confusion is the “fear” of initiation, new and different teachers, getting used to being looked down on, and starving while waiting at the end of the lunch line for the upperclassmen to go first. But the freshmen still loved every minute of it.

Freshman studying? This is indeed a rare scene at C.H.S. Freshmen are the first-year experimental group in the high school; experimental, that is, when all the upperclassmen experiment on them! These Freshmen probably took a few moments out for peace and quiet to escape from the upper-class aristocracy in the outside world. Ninth is but another stepping stone toward the day when THEY can enjoy pushing the new freshmen around! After all, what are freshmen for?
